

Subject: English.....class- 7 Topic Sentence and It's Kind

H. Rearrange the following words to form interrogative sentences and add appropriate punctuation marks.

1. what you will do with these packets
2. where you kept have all the stationery
3. when you go will to the office
4. why you are laughing
5. who coming is to see you

Class-7 Eng.

I. Rearrange the following words to form exclamatory sentences and punctuate them carefully.

1. a well-behaved child what you are
2. lovely is the how view
3. an eloquent speech what she gave
4. the dolls how beautiful are
5. a pleasant surprise what

VALUE CORNER

Exclamatory sentences help communicate strong feelings. Your friend has given you a gift on your birthday that you don't like. How will you express your feelings?

J. Rearrange the following words to make a command, request, advice or instruction. Use comma and add punctuation marks where required.

1. in the library don't make a noise
2. you my question answer
3. take medicines regularly you your
4. fetch me please a glass chilled water of
5. walk on the grass please don't

Class-7 Eng.

H. Rearrange the following words to form interrogative sentences and add appropriate punctuation marks.

1. what you will do with these packets
2. where you kept have all the stationery
3. when you go will to the office
4. why you are laughing
5. who coming is to see you

I. Rearrange the following words to form exclamatory sentences and punctuate them carefully.

1. a well-behaved child what you are
2. lovely is the how view
3. an eloquent speech what she gave
4. the dolls how beautiful are
5. a pleasant surprise what

VALUE CORNER

Exclamatory sentences help communicate strong feelings. Your friend has given you a gift on your birthday that you don't like. How will you express your feelings?

J. Rearrange the following words to make a command, request, advice or instruction. Use comma and add punctuation marks where required.

1. in the library don't make a noise
2. you my question answer
3. take medicines regularly you your
4. fetch me please a glass chilled water of
5. walk on the grass please don't