Meena and Tina were fairies. They were playing in the Little Fairies Park. A rabbit came and went around them. He wanted to play with them. The two friends shooed him away rudely. "Go from here. Can't you see we are playing so happily."

The rabbit looked at the fairies and gave a naughty smile.

"What's that?" he asked pointing towards their back. Suddenly, he started to giggle and then he laughed and laughed. The fairies stopped and questioned him, "Why are you laughing?" The rabbit said, "You look so funny with the tails. Fairies do not have tails."

Tina and Meena were shocked. They tried to turn and look at their own tails but they could not. The fairies started crying and rushed home to their mother and asked her, "Can you see tails behind us, mom?" Both turned around. Mother smiled and said, "No, of course not."

Tina and Meena then went to the crazy rabbit and asked him, "Do we have tails?"

The rabbit laughed a lot and said, "You don't have tails. It was just a prank was teasing you."

The fairies were angry.

The next moment the rabbit got up and said, "I am sorry. I just wanted to be friends with you. Are we friends now?" The fairies shook hands with him and they became friends.
