Passage : 4

An old man was walking slowly along a street. He saw a little boy who was trying to reach a doorbell which was too high for him. He was a kind-hearted old-man, so he stopped and said, "I will ring the bell for you." Then he pushed the button of the bell so hard that it could be heard all over the house.

The little boy looked up at him and said, "Now we will run away. Come on or we shall be caught." Before the old gentleman knew what was happening the naughty little boy had run away round the corner of the street, leaving the old man to explain to the angry owner of the house, "Why you had rung the bell ?"

Q. 1. What did the old man see the boy doing ?
